Leibowitz HW, ed. On the contrary, it is about a moral and political practice capable of enabling students and others to become more knowledgeable while creating the conditions for generating a new vision of the future in which people can recognize themselves, a vision that connects with and speaks to the desires, dreams and hopes of those who are willing to fight for a radical democracy.

Hind Cartwheel (Orions Cartwheels Book 3)

By probing questions of gender and culture in her compelling introduction, she convincingly demonstrates the need to integrate both women's literature and contemporary Catalan literature into the codification of post-civil war fiction.
