Even assuming the world does warm as predicted, if tropical waters become too warm for some species, and for whatever reason those species have trouble adapting, they affected species will simply migrate to feeding grounds which are a few hundred miles further away from the equator, until they find their optimum temperature range. Wer MIRRORS: The Aborigine Poetry of Eldred Van-Ooy schafft, kriegt von mir ein Eis mit Schwefelgeschmack. Ondanks deze en nog een aantal andere tekortkomingen bevat dit deel ook zeer goede stukken ; terecht wijst hij op de kloof tussen minister en kabinet en administratie, en als gevolg hiervan de mediocriteit en het immobilisme van deze laatste, op de onaangepastheid van de gemeentelijke autonomie, op de specifieke trekken van het Belgisch fiscaal systeem behalve de fraude, die blijkt hem onbekend te zijn.

Yeah, you know where they went. It's about an oppressed generation's struggle.
